

I am in strong of a much more diverse broadcast media with more points of view readily available to the public. I am against the concentration of broadcast media power in the hand of the few and the rich...that is anti-democratic. Thank you.